Body Stress Release
Gail van Beest

TREATMENT AGREEMENT

Practice: Body Stress Release (BSR) with Gail

Practitioner: Gail van Beest

By digitally agreeing to this document, practitioner and client acknowledge the following:

1. The client will be treated by the above-mentioned practitioner who is affiliated with BSRAN and CAT Reimbursable.
2. The client agrees to the applicable pricing as stated on the website www.bsrwithgail.nl
3. The client is aware of the form of treatment and gives permission for the proposed treatment options.
4. The practitioner maintains confidentiality with regard to the information provided by the client, which is stored in the file. With the exception of exchanging data to fellow practitioners with whom we work together in the event of practical observation.
5. The practitioner undertakes to refer the client to a fellow practitioner or doctor if the treatment is not sufficient or cannot be continued due to illness, death or a condition.
6. Termination of the treatment can take place at any time by mutual consent.
7. Termination of the treatment can be done unilaterally by the client if the client no longer appreciates the treatment or considers it necessary.
8. The treatment can be unilaterally terminated by the practitioner if she cannot reasonably be expected to continue the treatment.
9. Payment for a consultation takes place immediately after a consultation; preferably by pin or possibly cash. In exceptional cases, this is done by bank transfer (a payment term of 14 days applies).
10. The client will receive a declaration note from the practitioner by email as soon as they have confirmation that the payment has been completed.
11. The client agrees to inclusion and processing in the digital client file and digital agenda of the practitioner.
12. The practitioner uses this client file and digital agenda in accordance with the GDPR and privacy statement as can be found on www.bsrwithgail.nl
13. The data in the client file will be kept for 20 years, as required by the Medical Treatment Agreement Act (WGBO).
14. The practitioner will only treat children under the age of 12 in the presence of a companion (parent/caregiver or other responsible adult). For minors under 16 years of age, both parents/guardians must sign a consent form which is stated on the website www.bsrwithgail.nl

Body Stress Release
Gail van Beest

15. The practitioner undertakes to provide the client with information, at all stages, regarding the consultations. The client undertakes to provide relevant information to the practitioner both during the intake and in the conversation prior to the treatments.
16. The client undertakes to change an appointment in time (at least 24 hours in advance) (via WhatsApp or email), otherwise the costs of the reserved time may be charged.
17. The client is aware of, and agrees to, the general terms and conditions, privacy statement, and, if necessary, the consent form for minors, which are inextricably linked to this treatment agreement and are stated on www.bsrwithgail.nl
18. The client is aware of the complaints procedure. If the client has a complaint about the care provided, it is preferable that the client discusses this directly with the practitioner. In addition, the client can turn to the government-recognized and completely independent Wkkgz dispute resolution body: GAT (Disputes Authority for Alternative Therapists).
19. Body Stress Release (BSR) with Gail has entered into an observation and transfer agreement with Renee Heetland of Body Stress Release Heetland. This colleague practitioner can observe the practice in case of long-term absence of the practitioner or take over in case of closure of Body Stress Release (BSR) with Gail.
20. If the client objects to the sharing of the client file when the practice is observed or taken over by a fellow practitioner, the client can indicate this in writing to the practitioner.
21. The client has the right to view personal data, to correct it, to have the file deleted or to have it forwarded to another practitioner. In addition, the client has the right to withdraw any consent to the data processing or to object to the processing of the personal data by Body Stress Release (BSR) with Gail. The client must submit a written request to the practitioner for this.

Client name:	Practitioner name: Gail van Beest
Client signature:	Practitioner signature: